

Erasmus Academy NY Summer Language Program

Biblical Hebrew Online

May 22 – July 12, 2012 (8 weeks)

Purpose

This intensive course is designed for undergraduate or graduate students preparing to take the Biblical Hebrew proficiency exams for masters and PhD programs, and for any other college student, adult or motivated high school student desiring to acquire a year of college Biblical Hebrew in eight weeks.. It provides a thorough presentation of Hebrew grammar and introduces the student to expository prose, with the emphasis on reading and translation. No previous knowledge of the language is required. The objective of the course, approximating a full year of university instruction, is to bring the student to an intermediate reading level of Biblical Hebrew. Following this course, the student would be in a position to enroll in a second year college or graduate school Biblical Hebrew class.

Course Structure

As a distance learning course, students may take this class from any location or from the convenience of their home. They will need to have access to the Internet. The course meets in “real time” and participants are expected to attend all the scheduled sessions. Each student participates fully in each class by listening to the Instructor and repeating, translating sentences and posing questions. Assignments are emailed to the Instructor. The 8-week course meets two times a week (Tuesdays and Thursdays), 6:15pm-9:15pm EST; it comprises 48 hours of instruction. Each 3-hour session includes grammar, strategies for analyzing Hebrew sentences, vocabulary & verb review, sight-reading, and quizzes. Presuming 4 hours of outside preparation for each hour in class, 30 hours (6 + 24) a week should be available for study.
