

LEARN FRENCH THIS SUMMER ONLINE

Seventeenth Annual Summer Language Program

Prepare for the Language Proficiency Exams

- Emphasis on Reading and Translating French
- For all Graduate Students in the Arts & Sciences, or for any motivated college or high school student or other adult desiring to read in the language
- Online course in "real time." Students fully participate by listening & speaking, translating and posing questions. Take from any location or from home. One year of college French in 8 weeks. Access to the Internet required.
- Intensive Course; No previous language knowledge required
Time commitment – approximately 30 hrs/week. Objective: To read modern scholarly articles in French.
- Meetings: Tuesdays and Thursdays, 6:15pm –9:15pm EST
- 8 Weeks: May 22 – July 12, 2012
(48 hours of instruction approximate 4 semester hours. Modern methods. Strategies for analyzing French sentences.)
- High success rate. Instructor's Background: Matthew Udkovich was a Language Instructor, 2002-'08, while in the Columbia University doctoral program in French & Romance Philology; 10 years of teaching French to college and graduate students; 2 yrs of teaching French online.
- Limited Space Available. First come, first serve. Rolling Admissions. Applications accepted November 1, '10 – May 10, '12.

Course Fee: $800
Application Deadline: May 10, 2012

For information and application, write to:
Erasmus Academy NY Admissions
320 7th Avenue #101
Brooklyn, NY 11215

Call 718-499-0077, or visit www.erasmusacademy.com

