

LEARN GERMAN THIS SUMMER ONLINE

Seventeenth Annual Summer Language Program

Prepare for the Language Proficiency Exams

- Emphasis on Reading and Translating German
- For all Graduate Students in the Arts & Sciences, or for any motivated college or high school student or other adult desiring to read in the language
- Online course in "real time." Students fully participate by listening & speaking, translating and posing questions. Take from any location or from home. One year of college German in 8 weeks. Access to the Internet required.
- Intensive Course; No previous language knowledge required
Time commitment – approximately 30 hrs/week. Objective: To read modern scholarly articles in German. Includes readings from Th. Mann, Kafka, Hesse, Martin Buber, Schopenhauer, Carl Jung, etc.
- Meetings: Mondays & Wednesdays, 6:15pm –9:15pm EST
- 8 Weeks: May 21 – July 11, 2012
(48 hours of instruction approximate 4 semester hours. Modern methods. Strategies for analyzing German sentences. mp3 files.)
- High success rate. Instructor's Background: 6 years of graduate work at a German university; 12 years of teaching the intensive German course to graduate students in NYC area and online.
- Limited Space Available. First come, first serve. Rolling Admissions. Applications accepted November 1, '11 – May 10, 2012

Course Fee: $800

Application Deadline: May 10, 2012

For information and application, write to:

Erasmus Academy NY Admissions
320 7th Avenue #101
Brooklyn, NY 11215

Call 718-499-0077, or visit www.erasmusacademy.com

