

LEARN LATIN THIS SUMMER ONLINE

Seventeenth Annual Summer Language Program

Prepare for the Language Proficiency Exams

- Emphasis on Reading and Translating Classical Latin
- For all Graduate Students in the Arts & Sciences, or for any motivated college or high school student or other adult desiring to read in the language
- Online course in "real time." Students fully participate by listening & speaking, translating and posing questions. Take from any location or from home. One year of college Classical Latin in 8 weeks. Access to the Internet required.
- Intensive Course; No previous language knowledge required
Time commitment – approximately 30 hrs/week. Objective: To reach an intermediate level of reading Latin prose and be prepared to enroll in a second year college course in Latin.
- Meetings: Mondays & Wednesdays, 6:15pm –9:15pm EST
- 8 Weeks: May 21 – July 11, 2012
(48 hours of instruction approximate 4 semester hours). Grammar presentations. Vocabulary study. Translating. Sight Reading.
- High success rate. The Instructor, Dr. Ben DeSmidt, teaches at Carthage College, Wisconsin. Ph.D. graduate from Columbia University ('06) in Classics, where he taught various levels of Latin and Greek.
- Limited Space Available. First come, first serve. Rolling Admissions. Applications accepted November 1, '11 – May 10, 2012

Course Fee: $800

Application Deadline: May 10, 2012

For information and application, write to:

Erasmus Academy NY Admissions
320 7th Avenue #101
Brooklyn, NY 11215

Call 718-499-0077, or visit
www.erasmusacademy.com

