

LEARN SANSKRIT THIS SUMMER ONLINE
Twenty-Second Annual Summer Language Program
May 22 – July 13, 2017

Emphasis on Reading and Translating Sanskrit

For all Graduate Students in the Arts & Sciences, any college or high school student, and any other individual desiring to read the language.

Online course in "real time." Students log on at specific times and interact directly with the Instructor and with other students. Take from any location or from home. One year of college Sanskrit in 8 weeks.
Access to the Internet required.

Intensive Course. No previous knowledge of Sanskrit required.
Time commitment: 30 hrs/week. Objective: To reach an intermediate reading level in classical Sanskrit.

Meetings: Mondays & Thursdays, 6:15 pm–9:15 pm EST

8 weeks. 48 hours of instruction approximate 4 semester hours.

Background of Instructor: Dr. B.J. Chiarucci received her MA and her PhD from the University of California, Berkeley. She currently lives in Kyoto, Japan, from where she is teaching this summer Sanskrit course.

For further information and inquiries, contact Dr. Chiarucci directly:
E-mail: bchiarucci@me.com

For Course Description and to Enroll visit: www.erasmusacademy.com
Or call the Erasmus Academy Office at 718-499-0077

Limited space available. First come, first serve. Rolling admissions.

Applications accepted November 1, 2016–May 1, 2017

Course Fee: $950
Application Deadline: May 1, 2017