TUITION SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION FOR INTERMEDIATE CLASSICAL GREEK POETRY ONLINE: HOMER & SOPHOCLES, JAN. 25 – APRIL 26, 2018

Introduction

The Erasmus Academy is the recipient of a grant provided by an anonymous donor designed to cover a portion of the course fee for students planning to enroll in the Intermediate Classical Greek Poetry Online: Homer & Sophocles course. The donor wishes to encourage the study of the classics, Latin or Greek, and is committed to supporting specifically those applicants aspiring to teach classical languages and literature, courses in classical civilization, archaeology, etc. on any academic level, be it graduate, college, high school or elementary/middle school. There are ten (10) scholarships available, each in the amount of $150. These will be awarded on a first come, first serve basis.

Application Procedure

To apply for this tuition scholarship, a student needs to fill out both the Enrollment Form for the Intermediate Greek Poetry class and this Tuition Scholarship application, and submit them by email to the Erasmus Academy Admissions Office at least one week prior to December 31, 2017. Once received, the EA Admissions Office will immediately notify those students who have been awarded this scholarship. Thereupon the student needs to make the payment online by Dec. 31, 2017. [Since the date is also the Early Bird registration deadline, the resulting course fee would be $750 less $150 = $600. At the Erasmus Academy website Online Store, you will find three options for payment: $850, $750 and $600.]
